The Republican Party stands for honest money and the chance to earn it by honest toil.

WILLIAM MCKINLEY.

A FEW more meetings like that of the McKinley Club Monday night and the Washington county Democracy may be expected to throw up its hands and quit the game.

TOM WATSON, Populist candidate for Vice President, characterizes Sewell, the Democratic nominee, as "a wart on his party," "a knot on the log." Now if Mr. Sewell will kindly tell us what Tom is we will rest content. The people have already learned for themselves what Bryan is.

THE emotion with which Hon. Henry Bohl renounced his allegiance to the Democratic party at the McKinley Club meeting Monday night had its effect upon every member of the magnificent audience. The renunciation came straight from the heart and was recognized as the utterance of an upright and honest man, hurt because of the degeneracy of his party, but brave enough to desert it.

THE Marietta public is proud of its baseball team and convinced of its ability to trounce anything that has yet come this way. It has supported the game well and made it easy for the management to place a nice little sum in the treasury. If this is to continue, however, results must be on the merits of the games played without a suspicion of unfairness. Shut-out contests thrown away in a single inning toward the end must be less frequent.
Of course, it is not, as a rule, good business policy for a club to win too many games from a competitor, but the base ball loving public is not altogether wrapped up in gate receipts.

IT MAY be an accident, or it may be an official miscue, but the Marietta papers invariably fail to reach the Sentinel office after a game of base ball where the Parkersburg club is victorious. Perhaps, however, none is issued after such a calamitous misfortune.—Parkersburg Sentinel.

The Sentinel young man who is responsible for that paper's perversion of baseball news is such a clumsy and disgusting liar that we seldom have patience to notice him, but depart from our rule sufficiently to state that Marietta papers do not work their employees on Labor Day. Were they, however, to neglect the Sentinel's copies when "Parkersburg is victorious" it certainly would not occur often.

THE McKinley Club meeting at the Court House Monday night exceeded in enthusiasm and import the wildest expectations of the most hot blooded Republicans in the city. It was preceded by an effective parade of a number of members who had secured their new uniforms and when the meeting was called to order every available inch of space in the Court room was occupied by eager listeners. The orator of the evening was Major Townsend, who, in a manner devoid of all offensiveness to those of the opposite party, discussed the issues of the campaign.

The sensation of the evening was created when Hon. Henry Bohl, a lifelong Democrat and probably the most widely known and influential man in this part of the country, arose in response to the invitation of the chairman and in an impassioned speech denounced the Chicago ticket and platform and cast his lot with the Republicans, protection, reciprocity, sound money and all. He was given an oration seldom accorded to any man by a Marietta audience.

STERHEN H. DANIELS DEAD.

An Aged Mariettan Dies in Brazil, Ind.
Died, Tuesday, August 25th, of Bright's disease, Stephen H. Daniels, at the home of his sister, Mrs. W. B.
Hawkins. Mr. Daniels was born at Marietta, Ohio, January 24th, 1824, and in earlier life was a well known mechanic and bridge builder. The deceased had been a citizen of Brazil for nearly twenty years and for seventeen years was totally blind from the effects of paralysis of the optic nerve. His sufferings, which were extremely severe, were borne with a Christian fortitude, and through all of those years he retained a live interest in the books and topics of the day. The burial services will be conducted Thursday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, at the residence on the corner of Main and Depot streets.
Friends are cordially invited, particularly all members of the Mechanics and Builders' Association, if there are any such in the city.

The deceased's mother was a daughter of William Warren, deceased, of South Olive, Noble county, O., and sister of Wm. Warren, deceased, of Marietta, O.—Brazil, Ind., Democrat, August 26th.

Council Proceedings.

Council met in regular session Tuesday evening, with all members present except Brennan.

Ed. Twigg entered a complaint against railroad cars being left standing in front of his place of business on Butler street and upon motion of Moore the matter was referred to the railroad committee with power to act.

The contract with the T. B. Townsend Brick and Contracting Company for sewer work was read and approved.

On motion of Bachman the street committee was authorized to pay Mr.
Nye $25 additional to the $400 already authorized for the purchase of ground for opening Marion street, Wood voting no. The question of securing the money necessary was referred to the street committee with power to act.

The drainage of an alley from Washington to Warren, between Fifth and Sixth, was referred to the Commissioner.

The Townsend Company's bond for $8,000 for the completion of the sewer contract, was presented, read and approved by resolution and the Mayor and Clerk were authorized to execute the contract.

The Engineer was instructed to establish grade for a sidewalk on the west side of Seventh, between Butler and Greene streets.

The Engineer was instructed to procure six siphons for sewer work.

The Commissioner was instructed to notify property owners on Fifth street from Greene to Hart to lay sidewalks at once.

The President called up the matter of proposed paving of Fourth street, stating that property owners were clam-oring for the work to be done as soon as possible. An ordinance providing for such improvement from Ohio to Montgomery streets was read by the Clerk, and under suspension of the rules, passed to the second and third readings by title. Wood suggested that the matter of paying Butler street be taken up at the same time as Fourth. The Fourth street ordinance was adopted by unanimous vote and the Engineer was instructed to submit an estimate of the cost of paying Butler street.

An ordinance to prevent minors entering places where intoxicating liquors are sold, by making the minor so entering such a place punishable by fine, was submitted by the Mayor, passed to the second and third readings by title and adopted.

A resolution changing the grade on Third street from Washington to Marion was submitted by the Solicitor, but the Engineer requested that the change be made by ordinance and the matter was referred back for report at next meeting.

The drainage of the alley in the rear of the Citizens Bank was referred to the Commissioner.

SALISBURY

Says the Territory Occupied by British in Venezuela

Should Be Exempt From Consideration by an Arbitration Board.

That is the One Main Question of Getting the Long-Pending Boundary Dispute Settled—It is Believed, However, That Arbitration is in Sight.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—Additional correspondence between Great Britain and the United States on the Venezueluan question will shortly be made public. It consists of a communication from Lord Salisbury, in which he further insists that territory already occupied by British citizens should be exempt from consideration by an arbitration tribunal, and a reply from Secretary Olney.

In the latter note Secretary Olney asks Lord Salisbury to state whether occupancy alone gives a settler clear title to the property upon which he is located, and if so, what length of time should elapse to give him such a title.

Unofficially it is known that Lord Salisbury is framing another note in which he again touches upon the settled district question, and it is thought, makes some concessions. As far as any one at the state department is advised, the one main question of getting the long-pending boundary dispute to arbitration will continue to be a subject of negotiation for some time yet. It is the firm belief of state department officials, however, that the president in his next annual message to congress will be able to show that arbitration is in sight, if not actually accomplished.

Although it is not officially admitted, it may be safely stated that the report of the Venezuelan commission will not be made until some definite understanding between the administration and Lord Salisbury has been reached in respect to the appointment of an arbitration tribunal.

LABOR DAY.

All the Great Departments of the Government at Washington Were Closed—Washington Parade.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—Not since the special act of congress was passed making Monday a legal holiday in the District of Columbia and the territories has labor's pleasure day been so universally observed by all the workmen's organizations or been graced by such perfect weather for outdoor enjoyment.
All the great departments of the government were closed, all the trades were suspended and the whole city's population was given over to amusement-seeking. Closely following a circus procession in the morning, the parade of the unions mustered over 3,000 men, gave emphasis to the strength of the movement which had secured congressional recognition and the rest of the day was made notable by the enormous crowds that visited the various resorts up and down the Potomac where boat and bicycle races and other sports were of continuous occurrence. Numerous skilled artisans in the government employ, all of whom were included under the civil service regulations by President Cleveland of May 6, participated in the parade, as well as several Baltimore unions.

A HURRICANE

Does Much Damage Near Uniontown, Pa.
Houses, Barns, Fences and Crops Leveled.

UNIONTOWN, Pa., Sept. 7.—A terrific hurricane swept over a portion of Menallen and Franklin townships Saturday night, leveling houses, barns, fences and crops. It began near New Salem, traveled about eight miles in a northeasterly direction and was about 300 yards wide. The town of Waterburg was badly damaged, only three buildings being left standing and fit for habitation. No persons were killed but several were injured. The Pittsburgh, Virginia and Charleston railroad bridge was moved over a foot, and the new county bridge being erected to take the place of the one washed away in the July floods was blown down.
The damage will foot up tens of thousands of dollars.

Death of Rev. Philip Phelps.

ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 7.—Rev. Philip Phelps, D. D., one of the most promi-land academy, in Michigan which in 1866 was incorporated as Hope college, of which Dr. Phelps became the first president and held that office until his resignation in 1878.

AT CINCINNATI.

The Largest and Finest Labor-Day Parade Ever Witnessed in the Queen City.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 7.—A pleasant day for the Labor-day parade could not have been made to order. What with the elements and the efforts put forth by city authorities, Cincinnati's tolling army was favored as never before. The entire line of march had been thoroughly cleaned by Superintendent Amphibauer, of the street cleaning department, and a full force of laborers, and the finishing touches were placed on the work early Monday morning.
The parade, all in all, was the finest of the kind ever seen in Cincinnati. The members of the various unions stepped with precision, and the special displays received hearty applause from the thousands of spectators along the line of march.

As in their every day life, promptness was the rule of the marchers.
There was no delay in the start.

the jail in this city Saturday night, accompanied by five other criminals. The alarm was given by other prisoners, and posses started in pursuit, but as yet without success. There were 13 prisoners in the jail at the time.
Those who escaped were John Love, charged with murder; Douglass Roach and Terrence Gilveny, sentenced to the penitentiary for two years for forgery;
